Editorial

Dear Reader,

It is with great excitement that we at Pravahini navigate to our latest edition. This newsletter will be a compass for insightful updates in our journey of self-discovery and growth. We take pride in spotlighting the remarkable achievement of our students who have excelled raising the bar in academic excellence demonstrating a commitment to learning and intellectual growth. From ground-breaking research projects to top-notch performance in standardised tests, their achievements underscore the dedication to academic success. The trophies and accolades our student have brought home are a testament to their hard work, dedication, discipline and a spirit of healthy competition and artistic expression. What truly stands out is the ability of many students to strike a balance between academic pursuits, sports and arts. These achievements underscore the well-rounded education our institution provides, nurturing and fostering a holistic development of our students. They inspire others to reach for their goals and contribute to a positive and vibrant school environment. We assure you that just as much as we enjoyed compiling it, you will enjoy reading it.

Welcome to yet another feather on our cap of success...

Our achievements and events speaks...

Happy reading !!!

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Connecting the Dots....

Pravahini has come a long way, enthusing, informing and connecting the readers with what goes on inside the beehive of our Vidyalyaya. We believe that Pravahini definitely helps build relationships through regular communication and high value information provided from the news desk. From the standpoint of the connections forged between the classrooms and homes where Pravahini cascades down through the hands of our children, we have faith in keeping the spirit of readership strong and unified. This faith is again rooted in the principle of unifies vision- a cardinal aspect of CVP that leads to holistic development of the child's personality. Respect for common values, a sense of urgency to preserve our rich culture and the imperativeness to reach out as sensitive humans have shaped the creative annals of every activity that finds a place in this newsletter. Hope you will meet us on the same plane of perspectives and help us carve out a healthy space in the firmament of clear understanding.

Happy Reading.
